

FORT RECOVERY

MUSEUM & MONUMENT

Explore the site of two remarkable Northwest Indian War battles: the 1791 victory of nine Native nations, led by Mihšihkinaahkwa (Little Turtle, Miami) and Weyapiersenwah (Blue Jacket, Shawnee) over General Arthur St. Clair's forces; and the 1794 victory of General Anthony Wayne's army over a larger alliance of Native nations. The battles at this site set the stage for the 1795 Treaty of Greenville, after which Native peoples relinquished most of their land holdings in Ohio.

OHIO HISTORY
CONNECTION

Fort Recovery
Museum & Monument

ohiohistory.org/fortrecovery

Museum: 1 Fort Site St.
Monument: State Routes 119 & 49
Fort Recovery, OH 45846
800.283.8920

What You'll See

At the museum, explore exhibits featuring artifacts of the two battles, see portraits of key American and Native leaders of the 1790s, take a self-guided battlefield tour with 15 wayside exhibits, experience the new exhibit "St. Clair's Defeat Revisited: A New View of the Conflict", and visit two reconstructed 18th-century blockhouses.

Nearby, visit the Fort Recovery Monument, a 101-foot limestone obelisk commemorating the two important battles that took place more than 200 years ago at the site of the present-day village of Fort Recovery: St. Clair's Defeat and the Battle of Fort Recovery.

Plan Your Visit

MUSEUM HOURS

May, Sept, & October: Saturday & Sunday • 11 a.m.–4 p.m.

June–August: Wednesday–Sunday • 11 a.m.–4 p.m.

Closed all federal holidays.

ADMISSION

$5/Adult; $2/Child (6-12);

Free/Ohio History Connection members & Child (5 & under)

Guided outdoor battlefield tours (1 hour)

are scheduled the 2nd Sunday of the month

May through October at Noon and 3 p.m.

Tour included with museum admission.

Please note, Fort Recovery Museum accepts cash or check.

We regret that we cannot accept credit cards.

An ATM is located across the street from the museum.

To learn more, visit ohiohistory.org/fortrecovery