

Tin Cupboard • 105 South Wayne Street

William King, Tinsmith

Dr. Milligan moved his office here. In 1898 a dentist was here and also a millinery shop. In 1907 next door was a tin and stove shop. Charlie Scheid had a Tin Metal Shop in the 1930s-40s.

William King, tinsmith came after that, and then Philip Dearworth Shoe Repair opened for business.

In 1960 color TVs were a popular item to sell. Such was the case for Fort Recovery Electric and later Jenkins TV & Appliance Shop, both located in this spot.
